Onn wireless keyboard troubleshooting

December 3, 2021 by Cathie Categories Guides Post navigation How To Pair My Bluetooth Speaker? How To Pair Xbox 360 Controller To Pc Bluetooth? is this one I can't find info on yahoo how to reset it I find reset combinations for other companies that don't work in this. It was working fine but I pressed the pair light multiple times like 20 times really fast and after that it won't lit anymore. the keyboard is charged. connecting it to the pc only charges not detects it. tried rehocking it to my android and it doesn't see it. last thing I know it was not paired with any phone it was open. I don't think the lid burned. I don't have and can't find the manuals. I called apple and recorded my conversation. they said they can't support me cause is not an apple product tho the keyboard has command key. Last edited: Apr 15, 2018 they said they can't support me cause is not an apple product tho the keyboard has command key. They meant it was not made by Apple. And it isn't. It is made by Onn - an OEM manufacturer owned by Schneider Electric out of Germany. I found this customer service phone number: I pressed the pair light multiple times like 20 times really fast and after that it won't lit anymore. Why did you press it 20 times really fast? Did you inspect it carefully for a reset button? It might be in a tiny hole you push with a toothpick or something similar. If no reset, see if you can remove the batteries from the keyboard. If you can, leave them out for a few minutes and that might reset it. And while those batteries are out, delete the keyboard from any device you are trying to pair it with. BTW, while most states only require one party's consent to record a conversation, California is one of 12 states that requires consent from both parties to record calls, even if one of the parties is in a state that doesn't require "two-party consent". And since Apple is in California, legally, you needed Apple's permission to record that conversation. So be careful when you record phone calls. Even though Utah is not a "two-party consent" state, California could come after you, if they had the incentive to do so and you did not notify the Apple rep you were recording. Usually holding the power button down for an extended period of time, or holding down the pairing button for an extended period of time (something like three seconds). Also try holding both for an extended period if none of the above work ONN ONA14TA059 (01).pdf @ Manual Hub BTKB14TA059 Bluetooth Keyboard User Manual ONA14TA059 User Manul Qi Rev4_3-25-2014_1 Hung Tat Electronic Co Ltd Cleaned up images --> Quoted directions, as is, from link above: In the box Using the wireless bluetooth keyboard Power Indicator Light Charging the keyboard Android connecting settings Pair Button iPad connecting settings Step 1: On your iPad®, tap the Charge your Bluetooth Keyboard fully before use. Last edited: Apr 16, 2018 manual doesn't say how to reset keyboard, and there is no switch button to turn on/off. there is a button hidden under a battery icon and that may be the off button. it used to turn on by pressing any key. I will have to call. Are you sure it is not just turned off...as, your pic in your OP shows up arrow for power on and a down arrow for power off Look around real close and on the side, also, beneath... there has to be a switch of some type. Not real sure, but, it looks like there is a switch, on the side, right above the usb port. ok, somehow after 3 days the light started blinking again after a few more days the bluetooth light won't turn off! for 6 hours and couldn't pair. right now is in good standing but I forgot how pair it with another device once is paired with another without having access to this other phone/tablet/laptop. this tech is very delicate.
